

Key Note Speakers – Spring 2018

Sue Hackman

- ▶ Chief Adviser on School Standards at the DfE between 2006 -2013.
- ▶ Managed accountability, assessment, inspection, school improvement, pedagogy, catch-up programmes, international work and deprivation as well as the core subjects.
- ▶ National Director in the government's National Strategies.
- ▶ English inspector in Surrey LA. I
- ▶ Taught in every key stage, but started working life as an English teacher.
- ▶ An adviser, an inspector and a writer with over 80 titles.
- ▶ Sue retired last year and spends about half her time training or writing.

Daniel Sobel

- ▶ Founder and lead consultant for Inclusion Expert – a training and support company working in education.
- ▶ Background in educational psychology and psychotherapy
- ▶ Assistant headteacher, with experience across the whole spectrum of inclusion.
- ▶ Consulted with the Department of Education, the Institute of Education and the Cass School of Education at the University of East London
- ▶ Supported numerous third sector organisations.

Brendan Hall

- ▶ Round-the-world yacht race skipper
- ▶ Inspirational speaker
- ▶ Author
- ▶ Executive Coach.
- ▶ In 2009, Brendan skippered the winning yacht, Spirit of Australia, in the Clipper Round the World Yacht Race, leading a diverse amateur team on a 10-month racing circumnavigation of the planet.
- ▶ The human factors that lead to the team's victory were directly applicable to leading organisations in the volatile and uncertain 21st century - A fully empowered team, a culture of coaching, continuous improvement and a compelling vision.